STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF ALL

REGULAR LODGES OF PERFECTION,

TRANSMITTED BY THE

SOVEREIGN GRAND COUNCIL OF THE SUBLIME PRINCES OF THE ROYAL SECRET,

AT BERLIN, PARIS, AND BORDEAUX.

1762.

ARTICLE I.

No Lodges of Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masters can proceed to do any Masonic work, whether of election or reception, unless they are furnished with Constitutions from the Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, or from a Grand Inspector of the Order or his Deputy, duly signed and sealed, without which they are to be regarded as irregular, and their work declared null.

ARTICLE II.

No Lodge of Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masters can correspond with any other, except such as are reported by the Secretary-General of the Grand Council to the Grand Inspector or his Deputy, and by these communicated.

ARTICLE III.

Whenever a Lodge of Perfection is made acquainted with the existence of another Lodge of Perfection, not included in the list furnished itself by the Grand Inspector or his Deputy, it should at once advise the Grand Inspector or his Deputy thereof, that it may be made known to the Grand Council

ARTICLE IV.

If any brethren assemble irregularly, for the purpose of initiating persons into this degree, they should be reprimanded ; and no Mason of a regular Lodge can recognize or visit them on pain of such penalties as the laws of the Lodges of Perfection shall prescribe.

ARTICLE V.

If a Royal Lodge of Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masters should expel one of its members for misconduct, information thereof must forthwith be given to the Grand Inspector or his Deputy, that he may be able to notify thereof the other regular Lodges and the Grand Council. If a regular Lodge should violate the laws imposed upon it by the solemn provisions of our Secret Constitutions, or should refuse to submit and to ask forgiveness in the most dutiful manner by a petition signed by all the members, confessing their fault, and showing at the same time that they have ceased to work until such time as it shall please the Grand Council of the Sublime Princes to relieve them from interdict, to pardon them, and receive them again into favor.

ARTICLE VI.

Any new Lodge that may come into possession of new degrees, connected with the Order in general, should immediately make the same known to the Grand Inspector or his Deputy.

ARTICLE VII.

The present Statutes and Regulations must be read to every Bro. when he receives the degree of Royal Arch. He must promise punctually to obey them, and at all times to recognize the Knights of the East, Princes of Jerusalem, Knights of the East and West, Knights of the White Eagle, Knights Rose Croix, Patriarchs Noachite, Knights of the Royal Axe, Grand Pontiffs, Knights Princes Adepts, Knights of the White and Black Eagle, Sovereign Princes of the Royal Secret, and the Grand Inspectors and their Deputies, as his Chiefs, whom he must promise to respect, and their counsel to follow in whatever they direct. He must also promise to increase in zeal, fervour, and constancy for the order, to the end that he may one day attain to the degree of Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Mason; and to be submissive and obedient to the Statutes and Regulations heretofore made, or that may hereafter be made by the Sovereign Princes, Chiefs of the Order of Masonry, and that he will pay them all the honours to which they are entitled; and to add more force to such obligation, he must sign a submission in due form.

ARTICLE VIII.

Every Lodge of Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masons should have nine officers; including whom, the number of members should not exceed twenty-seven. The Th.: Puissant is not counted among the nine officers. He represents Solomon. Hiram, King of Tyre, sits on his right, in the absence of the Grand Inspector or his Deputy.

1st. The Grand Keeper of the Seals, representing Galahad, son of Sophonia, Chief of the Levites, who sits on the left of the Th.: Puissant.

2nd. The Grand Treasurer, representing Guibulum, the confidant of Solomon, who sits in front of the table of shew-bread.

3rd. The Grand Orator, representing Abdamon, who explained to Solomon many enigmas, and the hieroglyphics engraven on the pieces of marble found in the ancient ruins of Enoch on the mountain Acedama, who sits near the Altar of Incense in the North.

4th. The Grand Secretary, representing Joabert, the favorite of the two allied Kings; who sits in the South, opposite the Altar of Incense.

5th. The Senior Grand Warden, representing Adonhiram, son of Abda, Prince Harodin of Libanus, who, after the death of H.... Ab...., was Inspector of the laborers on Mount Libanus, and the first of the Seven Secret Masters; who sits in the West.

6th. The Junior Grand Warden, representing Mahabon, the most zealous Master of his time, and a great friend of H.... Ab....; who sits in the west, on the left of the Senior Gr.: Warden.

7th. The Grand Master of Ceremonies, representing Stolkin, one of the three who discovered the nine Arches and the Delta ; who sits in the North.

8th. The Captain of the Guards, representing Bendia or Zerbal, who held that office during the alliance of the two kings, and who sits between the two Grand Wardens.

9th. One Tiler, or two, that the Lodge may be well guarded.

ARTICLE IX.

The Th. Puissant and other officers are to be elected once in each year. No one but a Prince of Jerusalem can be elected to preside. The election is to be held on the 3rd day of the 12th month, called Adar, which answers to the 21st of February, that memorable day of the year 2995, when the precious treasure was found by three zealous Master Masons under the ruins of our ancient patriarch Enoch. The mode of electing either of the officers or a candidate depends on the particular Laws of the Lodge ; but when the officers have been elected, they must take an obligation, to the Grand Inspector or his Deputy, that they will perform the duties of their office with zeal, constancy, fervour, and affection towards their brethren.

ARTICLE X.

Everything like party organization and cabal is absolutely prohibited in connection with the election of officers, on pain of expulsion and erasure of name from the Orient.

ARTICLE XI.

All the Brethren must in open Lodge wear all their decorations. A Bro. who enters a Lodge without his ornaments or the insignia of some higher degree, shall lose his right to vote at that meeting, and pay into the Treasury such fine as the Lodge shall impose.

ARTICLE XII.

Lodges of Perfection are to be held on the days and at the hours specified, whereof the Brethren composing the Lodge shall have due notice from the Secretary, in order that if business of importance prevents any Bro.: from attending, he may advise the Secretary thereof by letter, on the morning of the day of meeting, whereof the Secretary shall inform the Lodge in the evening ; this under such penalties as the Th.: Puissant and the Lodge may determine.

ARTICLE XIII.

All Lodges of Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masons must mutually visit each other, by deputations or correspondence, as frequently as possible, and communicate to each other whatever light they may acquire.

ARTICLE XIV.

The Grand Secretary shall issue to every Brother, who is about to travel, a certificate signed by the Th.: Puissant, the Wardens, and the Grand Keeper of the Seals, who shall thereto affix the seal of the Lodge ; and countersigned by the Grand Secretary. The signature of the Brother to whom it is granted must appear in the margin.

ARTICLE XV.

The Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masons may admit to the degree of Perfection such brethren as are worthy thereof, and who have held office in Symbolic Lodges ; and to all the degrees that precede that of Perfection, to wit : Secret Master, Perfect Master, Confidential Secretary, Provost and Judge, Intendant of the Buildings, Elect of the Nine, Elect of the Fifteen, Illustrious Knight, Grand Master Architect, and Knight of the Royal Arch. The Th.: Puissant may confer three degrees at one and the same time on each Bro.: by way of reward for zealous service ; and finally the degree of Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Mason, when the proper time has elapsed.

ARTICLE XVI.

Besides the Feast-days of the 24th June and 27th December, the Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masons must every year, on the 5th of October, celebrate the rebuilding of the first Temple of the Lord. The Prince who is oldest and highest in degree will preside ; and if the two Wardens be of inferior degree, their places will be filled by such brethren, higher in degree, as the President shall appoint ; and so with all the other officers.

ARTICLE XVII.

All matters whatever must be proposed by a Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Mason, and the Members will vote in order, commencing with the youngest; and whenever a candidate is proposed to the Lodge, it must be shown that he respects and is attached to his religion, that he is a person of true probity and discretion, and that he has given proofs of his zeal, fervour and constancy for the Order and his brethren.

ARTICLE XVIII.

When the Wardens are notified by the Th.^o. Puissant of his intention to hold a Lodge, they must attend, and with all their might advance the prosperity of the Lodge. The Master of Ceremonies must also be notified, in advance, that he may prepare the Hall.

ARTICLE XIX.

The Grand Keeper of the Seals will have the seals ready for receptions, set everything in order, and affix the seals to all certificates, or other documents signed by the Officers of the Lodge.

ARTICLE XX.

The Grand Orator will deliver a discourse at each reception, enlarging therein upon the excellence of the Order. He will instruct the new brethren, explain to them the Mysteries, and exhort them not to slacken in their zeal, fervour and constancy, that they may attain to the degree of Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Mason. If he has noticed any indiscretions on the part of any brethren, or any disputes among them, he will advise the Lodge thereof, that it may endeavour to bring about a reconciliation.

ARTICLE XXI.

The Grand Treasurer will safely keep all funds devoted to charitable purposes, as well as moneys received for receptions. He will keep a regular book of accounts, at all times ready to be examined by the Lodge; and, as Charity is an indispensable duty among Masons, the brethren should voluntarily contribute to the fund for that purpose, each according to his means.

ARTICLE XXII.

The Grand Secretary will keep a record of all the transactions of the Lodge, plainly written, and always ready to be inspected by the Lodge, the Grand Inspector or his Deputy. He will dispatch all orders issued by the Th.^o. Puissant, within such time that they may reach their destination in due season. He must prepare all requisitions that are to be transmitted to the Lodge, to the Grand Council, the Grand Inspector, his Deputy, or into foreign countries ; and he will take the greatest possible care to keep the business of his office in perfect order.

ARTICLE XXIII.

The Master of Ceremonies must repair to the Temple in due season, so as to have everything ready, that the work may not be delayed. He is always one of the examiners of visiting brethren, and introduces them according to their degrees. Consequently, he ought to be well informed as to the dignities, and possess the confidence of the Lodge.

ARTICLE XXIV.

The Captain of the Guards sees that the Tiler does his duty ; and should see that the Lodge is well tiled. He receives all visitors, wearing his hat, and sword in hand, unless they are Princes Masons, in whose presence he is uncovered. He will advise the Th.^o. Puissant whenever a visitor desires to be admitted, will assist in examining him, and will in all cases precede the brethren in the ceremonies of instruction. When he reports that the visitor is a Prince Mason, such visitor will be received with all the honours, the brethren forming the vault of steel with their swords, and the Grand Master of Ceremonies conducting him to the foot of the throne, and afterwards to an elevated seat near the Th.^o. Puissant.

ARTICLE XXV.

If any Lodge is for good cause dissolved or temporarily interdicted, the officers thereof must deposit the Charter, Regulations and Statutes, and all the papers of the Lodge, with the Grand Council, if there be one, and if not, with the Gr.^o. Inspector or his Deputy ; where they will remain until the Lodge is allowed to resum. labor. And if the members of such Lodge should not submit to the decision of the Grand Council, their disobedience, and their names, degrees and civil characters, are to be notified in writing to all the recognized Lodges in the two Hemispheres, that they may incur the contempt of all Masons. May the Grand Architect of the Universe avert so great a misfortune, and inspire us to select good men for our brethren, that thereby the Order may attain perfection.

ARTICLE XXVI.

If a member of a Lodge that has been dissolved by the Grand Council, shows that body by petition that he is innocent, he shall be restored to favour, and affiliated with another Lodge.

ARTICLE XXVII.

Nothing that is done in a Lodge should be made known out of the Lodge, except to a member of the same, under such penalty as the Lodge shall inflict.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

No visitor can be admitted until the Lodge is opened, nor until he has been scrupulously examined by two well informed brethren ; and he shall take his obligation also, unless more than one member of the Lodge shall state that they have seen him sit in a regularly constituted Lodge of at least the degree of that which he seeks to visit.

ARTICLE XXIX.

Every Lodge may have two BB. Tilers, whose good character must be known. They will be clothed at the expense of the Lodge, and wear the proper jewel only at the button-hole of their coat.

ARTICLE XXX.

The Knights and Princes Masons being the great lights of the Lodge, all complaints against them shall be made in writing and presented at the next Lodge meeting. The Lodge shall hear and decide ; and if a party thinks himself aggrieved, he may appeal to the Grand Council, which shall determine in the last resort.

ARTICLE XXXI.

Secrecy as to the Mysteries being of indispensable obligation, the Th.: P.: Grand Master shall, before closing each Lodge, inculcate that duty on the Brethren in the usual manner and form.

ARTICLE XXXII.

If a brother be sick, any member knowing thereof must forthwith inform the Th.: Puissant, in order that he may receive the necessary attention ; and the Gr.: Hospitaller must visit him, to see that he is properly cared for.

ARTICLE XXXIII.

When a brother dies, all the brethren are obliged to attend his funeral in the accustomed manner.

ARTICLE XXXIV.

If a brother meet with misfortunes, it is the duty of every brother to assist him.

ARTICLE XXXV.

If the Th.: Puissant be not present in the Lodge, one hour after the time fixed for assembling, and there be five brethren present, the oldest Officer will instantly take the throne, and proceed regularly with the work, provided that the Grand Inspector and his Deputy are absent ; but if either of them be present, he shall be invited to take the throne, with all the honours ; the same honours being paid the Deputy as to the Inspector, in the absence of the latter.

ARTICLE XXXVI.

To secure regularity in the Lodge, the Th.: P.: Master and the Gr.: Inspector or his Deputy must keep a list of all the members of the Lodge, showing the degree and civil character of each, to be laid before the Gr.: Council and transmitted to all the regular Lodges. They will also advise the Grand Inspector or his Deputy of every matter of interest communicated to the Lodge.

ARTICLE XXXV'I.

If the members of any Lodge deem it necessary to make any alterations in the present Constitutions and Regulations, that can only be done by petition in writing, presented to the Lodge prior to the annual Feast. If the members, upon mature consideration of the matter proposed, find nothing therein contrary to said Statutes and Regulations, the proposition in writing shall be transmitted to the Grand Council of the Princes, and if they approve it, it shall be sent to the Gr.: Inspector or his Deputy for the District, who shall decide thereon ; none of our ancient customs, obligations or ceremonies being changed, nor the force of our present Constitutions and Regulations diminished, on pain of interdiction. Wherefore, all Lodges of Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masons and of Ancient Masons, regularly established under our protection, shall so govern and direct themselves for the future, in every place in the world where our Order is established, being under the direction of the Inspector, his Deputy or the Princes Masons, individually or in Grand Council, if there be one : Whereto to give force and actuality, we have resolved to create Inspectors and Deputy Inspectors, who shall travel by land and sea, to take note and observe in all Lodges regularly constituted. A copy of which Laws and Regulations shall be delivered to our aforesaid Delegates, Deputy Inspectors, with authentic patents and powers in due form, that they may be recognized and duly empowered in the exercise of their functions.

So DECREED by our Chiefs and Worthy Protectors in lawful assembly of true science and ample power as Representatives of the Sovereign of Sovereigns.

DONE, at the Grand Orient of Paris, Berlin and Bordeaux, in a Holy place, under the Celestial Vault, near the B.: B.:, the 25th day of the 7th month of the year 1762 ; and transmitted to the Very Ill.: and Very Puissant Prince STEPHEN MORIN, Grand Inspector of all the Regular Lodges in the new world.

A'DRE F. AUGUSTE DE GRASSE,
Grand Keeper of the Seals and Archives.

STATUTES AND GENERAL REGULATIONS

OF THE

Knights of the East.

ARTICLE I.

A Council of Knights of the East is composed of the Sovereign, the Grand Keeper of the Seals, the General, the Grand Treasurer, the Grand Orator or Minister of State, and all the Bros.: Knights, received or affiliated.

ARTICLE II.

The Knights of the East, being Sovereign Princes of Masonry, must all be equal, in order to perpetuate their Sovereignty, and cause harmony always to prevail. For that reason, the eminent post of Sovereign is to be filled alternately by all the Brethren from year to year, each in his turn.

ARTICLE III.

But it is not so with the office of Grand Keeper of the Seals. That officer holds in perpetuity, in consequence of his being the sole Grand Keeper of the Secret and Ancient Archives of Chivalry, the depositary of the Seals, and charged with the general correspondence with all bodies of this degree spread over the surface of the Earth. He convokes the Council when ordered to do so. This office is given by election to a Knight who is domiciled and resident in the place where this Grand Lodge is established.

When this office is vacant, an election to fill it is immediately held by the Knights, by ballot, and a plurality of votes elects. The incumbent always sits nearest the Sovereign, on his right, and next to him the Visitors.

ARTICLE IV.

The office of General is filled by all the Knights alternately, according to Art. 2. The duties of this officer are to see the rules and order observed.

ARTICLE V.

The Grand Treasurer also sees to the enforcement of the Regulations, and sits on the left of the General, in the West. He is the custodian of all the funds and insignia of the Lodge. He renders his accounts three times a year to all the Knights assembled. This office is not filled by promotion, but by annual election by ballot, and the incumbent may be re-elected.

ARTICLE VI.

The office of Grand Orator is filled by all the Knights in turn, according to Articles 2 and 4. He sits on the left of the Sovereign. But, as talent and eloquence are rare gifts of nature, a Knight may refuse to accept this office, without for that being liable to censure.

ARTICLE VII.

As all Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masons are ex-officio Wardens of the Order of Masonry, so Knights of the East are ex-officio Princes and Sovereigns of the Order in general. The Council of Knights of the East takes cognizance of all disagreements among Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masons.

ARTICLE VIII.

A Knight of the East has the right, wherever he travels, when he meets an Apprentice, Fellow Craft, or Master Mason, provided there are in the place no Lodges of the six lower degrees, to confer on such Bro.: those six degrees, if he find him worthy, but each at a different time. Though a Knight has the power to constitute other Knights, he does not do so except in extraordinary cases, and in favor of a Bro.: domiciled in a place where no Knights of this degree reside; because it ought not to be too much multiplied; or in places where there are no Lodges except such as are established on false principles, or with irregular constitutions. In that case he may either interdict such Lodges, or heal them, as his wisdom and prudence may direct.

ARTICLE IX.

If a Knight commit any grave offence, he is not to be punished therefor until he has been heard in his defence, nor until the matter has been regularly tried by the Lodge, met for that purpose ; that is to say, when all the Knights of the East have been summoned to attend, and a majority of them is present. The offences committed by Knights, and the punishment inflicted, are to be kept from the knowledge of all Brethren of inferior degrees, under the greatest penalties. Councils held to consider matters of police, must consist of seven Knights, at least.

ARTICLE X.

When it is desired to advance an Elect, Perfect and Sublime Mason to the degree of Knight of the East, a month, at least, must elapse after he is proposed, that the Council may have time to inform itself whether he has zealously and accurately performed his duties.

ARTICLE XI.

Every Knight of the East has the right to commission Grand Elect, Perfect (and Sublime Masons) to supervise the conduct of such Brethren as aspire to the High Degrees.

ARTICLE XII.

No Grand Elect, Perfect (and Sublime Mason) can attain the degree of Knight of the East, until he has been appointed to supervise the conduct of all the Brethren, and has done so for seven months ; but that time may be shortened according to circumstances.

ARTICLE XIII.

Although it is provided by Articles 2, 4 and 6, that the Knights hold office only one year, they may yet serve a second term, if no Knight be found suitable to fill the vacant place. On the annual Feast-day of the 22nd of March, he who should go out of office may in such case, and for the good of the Order, be required to serve a second term.

ARTICLE XIV.

All Knights of the East ought to qualify themselves to fill the places of the degree of the Sovereign of the Masonic Order. They should learn that it is for this reason, and upon those principles of harmony and equality that ought to govern among them, that the dignities are to be filled, each in its turn. Consequently, the Grand Council of the East will meet once a month for practice by each of the Knights alternately in all the degrees. It would be a humiliating thing for a Mason, who has attained the sublime height of this degree, not to know the science of the inferior degrees, when he is obliged to instruct others therein.

ARTICLE XV.

When a Knight of the East visits a Lodge of Perfection or of the Royal Arch, he is to be received with the honours of the Arch ; and if the Venerable is not a Knight, he must offer such visitor his mallet and his seat, which he may accept or refuse. If he accepts, he retains them but a moment, and then seats himself on the right of the Ven., who requests him to inspect all the work of the Lodge. If several Knights together visit a Lodge, they sit on the right and left of the Th. Puissant who offers the mallet to the eldest.

ARTICLE XVI.

Every Knight must have a copy of these present Articles, compared and certified to be correct by the Grand Keeper of the Seals, a copy of the Statutes and Regulations of Perfection, and a copy of the General Regulations for Lodges of the first degree, that he may be competent to maintain good order and discipline everywhere, and in all regular Lodges that he may visit.

COMPARED, and certified as correct by us, Sovereign Gr. Commander and Grand Keeper of the Seals of the Grand Council of the Royal Secret at the Orient of Charleston, South Carolina.

[Signed by DELAHOGUE and DE GRASSE, like the other documents.]

STATUTES, REGULATIONS, DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES

OF THE

Princes of Jerusalem.

ARTICLE I.

The Princes of Jerusalem are the Chiefs of Masonry. They have the right to visit and inspect Lodges, up to the degree of Knights of the East ; and may quash and recall their work, if it be contrary to the laws of Masonry.

ARTICLE II.

When a Prince of Jerusalem visits a Lodge or Council, he should wear the Jewel and ornaments of his degree, and announce himself as a Prince of Jerusalem.

ARTICLE III.

The Ven. : will delegate a Bro. : of that degree, if there be one, to go out and examine him. When he has so done, he returns, reports to the Lodge, and announces the Visitor by his rank.

If this is in a Council, the Sovereign orders the folding-doors to be thrown open, that the Vault of Steel may be formed, and the Visitor to be seated on his right. If in a Symbolic Lodge, the Ven. : delegates four brethren to go and receive him, never selecting the officers-dignitaries, who must never leave their stations. The Delegates go to the Visitor and conduct him to the entrance. The folding-doors are thrown open, the Vault of Steel is formed, and he is conducted to the most honourable seat ; and the Venerable, if he be not himself a Prince of Jerusalem, offers him his mallet and his seat, which he may accept or refuse as he pleases. The same ceremonies are to be observed when he retires from the Temple.

If a Prince of Jerusalem applies to visit a Lodge in which there is no brother of that degree, and without his certificate, the most expert Bro. is delegated, and the Ven. himself, if need be, to go out and examine him, and satisfy himself of his proficiency. After this examination, he must give his word of honour that he is a Prince of Jerusalem, as is provided by Art. 2.

ARTICLE IV.

A Council of Princes of Jerusalem is styled "Council of the Very Valiant and Very Illustrious Princes." All inferior Lodges must report to them their work ; and they have the right to examine their charters, without any one taking exception thereto. The Princes of Jerusalem, to the number of five, are the judges in the last resort of the decisions of the Lodges, there being no appeal from their judgments. They derive this power from their predecessors, on whom the people of Jerusalem conferred it. They sit covered in Lodges, and address the Ven. without asking permission.

ARTICLE V.

The Rights of the Princes of Jerusalem having been granted them as a reward for the services rendered by them to the people of Jerusalem, for their profound knowledge and the obligations under which they laid Masonry, they are deservedly the equals of the great Prince Zorobabel, of the race of David.

ARTICLE VI.

Princes of Jerusalem should be honourable and just men, courteous, and strict observers of the laws, seeing justice done, and enforcing good order in the Lodges.

ARTICLE VII.

If any Prince of Jerusalem does not lead an irreproachable life, or acts dishonestly, he is to be punished by the other Princes by majority of votes.

ARTICLE VIII.

If a Prince of Jerusalem ridicules another, or derides him, he shall be forbidden to sit at three successive Councils.

STATUTES AND REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE IX.

If a Prince of Jerusalem challenges another to fight a duel, he is to be expelled from his Council, his name erased, and notice thereof given to the Grand Council, to all corresponding Councils, and to all the Symbolic Lodges.

ARTICLE X.

If, at any election of officers, a Prince of Jerusalem solicits votes for himself or any other person, he shall be forever expelled.

ARTICLE XI.

The Grand Feast of the Princes of Jerusalem is on the 23rd day of the 12th month, in memory of the thank-offerings that day rendered to God, for the re-building of the Temple. On that day the elections of Officers of all Councils of Princes of Jerusalem are to be held.

On the 20th day of the 10th month, also, a Feast of the Order is to be celebrated in commemoration of the triumphal entry into Jerusalem of the Ambassadors on their return from Babylon.

ARTICLE XII.

A Council of Princes of Jerusalem must be composed of at least five. The Sovereign represents Zorobabel. The two Wardens are styled "Very Enlightened." The Officers are as in other Lodges, and are all styled "Illustrious."

CERTIFIED to conform to the original deposited in the Archives of the Grand Council, at the Sub.: O.: of Charleston, South Carolina.

[Signed by DELAHOGUE and DE GRASSE, like the Statutes ; and with two Seals.]

DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES

OF THE

Princes Rose Croix, or Knights of the Eagle, or the Pelican.

The Princes of Rose Croix are entitled to take the mallet in any Symbolic Lodges at which they are present. They sit by the side of the Ven., and if that honour is not offered them, they take their place behind the youngest apprentice, in token of their humility.

They must sign no Masonic document, without adding the characters that indicate their degree. When a Chapter is regularly established anywhere, it must of necessity meet six times a year, to wit :

On Holy [or Maundy] Thursday,
On Easter day,
On the Thursday after Easter,
On Ascension day,
On the day of Pentecost,
And on All Saints' Day ; besides meeting on the two feast-days of the Saint John.

A Chapter cannot consist of less than three members. When there are more, it has the same Officers as an ordinary Lodge ; and the elections are held on the Thursday after Easter.

The Knights Rose Croix are bound to give charity to the poor, to visit those in prison and the sick, and to give them aid in their necessities, each according to his means.

When a Knight Rose Croix dies, he is to be buried with his collar. All Knights in the place must attend the burial, wearing their insignia under their coats, if they cannot openly display them without scandal. A Funeral Service must be performed in the Chapter, at which an oration in memory of the deceased will be delivered.

The Knights cannot engage in mortal combat one with the other.

They cannot be excused for non-attendance at meetings of the Chapter, when notified, except in case of sickness.

The Chapter must be lighted with candles of yellow wax, or lamps fed with olive oil.

A Knight Rose Croix is not to be tiled, when he presents himself for admission into a Lodge as a visitor. He should therefore have a special brief, evidencing his rank. He must wear his jewel in all Lodges.

ORDINANCES OF THE CHAPTER.

[UNDER THE GRAND ORIENT OF FRANCE.]

ARTICLE I.

The principal feast of the Chapter is the Thursday before Easter. No reason whatever will excuse a failure to hold a Chapter on that day ; and if, in the place where one lives, there be no other Knights, he must perform the ceremony alone, and unite in spirit with his Brethren, who on the same day will remember him. If one is on a journey, still he can and even ought to perform this duty.

ARTICLE II.

If a Knight knows of another Knight not more than three leagues distant, he should write him, to hold a Chapter with him on Maundy Thursday ; and in that case they are to meet half-way.

ARTICLE III.

The Brothers Rose Croix are termed Knights Princes Perfect Masons. Their Mother Lodge is situated on the Mountain of Heredon, where, in all Europe, the first Chapter of the Order was held. In that Lodge is kept the Register of all the Chapters of Rose Croix that have been constituted.

ARTICLE IV.

The Knights Rose Croix are entitled to take the gavel, if they choose, in any Lodge. If they decline to exercise the privilege, they seat themselves immediately on the Right of the Master, and under the Canopy. They may afterwards remove to any other seat.

ARTICLE V.

They are positively prohibited from presenting themselves in any Lodge, without their cordon and jewel of a Rose Croix.

ARTICLE VI.

When a Knight visits a Chapter, he ought, out of humility, after saluting the Master and Brethren, to take the lowest place in the Chapter ; but the Master should then place him in the highest.

ARTICLE VII.

Every Chapter regularly constituted must assemble at least five times a year, to wit : On the Four Solemn Feasts, and on Maundy Thursday. A Chapter must never close without a refection following.

A Chapter, like Masonic Bodies in general, should also be held on the days of the Saints John.

ARTICLE VIII.

A Knight should never sign any Masonic document, without adding his style,—S. P. R. —.

ARTICLE IX.

A Chapter regularly constituted must consist of at least three members. When composed of but three, the Jun. Warden acts as Secretary. Regularly it is full with seven members ; but the number may be increased to eleven ; and, in the single case of two Chapters in one place desiring to unite, to thirty-three and no more.

ARTICLE X.

A Knight Rose Croix is empowered to make a Mason, if there be no Lodge within ten leagues, or for an extraordinary cause ; but he can raise him no further than to the Sixth Degree [of the Rite Moderne.]

ARTICLE XI.

All the Brethren are obligated to show charity, not only to Masons but to all others that are unfortunate ; and also to visit the sick and persons imprisoned, and to assist them to the utmost of their ability.

ARTICLE XII.

At the first institution of the Order, the duties of Knights were, to visit the hospitals, to nurse the sick, to enshroud and aid in burying the dead. These two last duties are no longer imposed, except in the case of a Knight whose body is, by misfortune, without burial, and provided that he has not acted unworthily of the Order, or contrary to the principles which make an honest man.

ARTICLE XIII.

A Knight is prohibited from fighting, under any possible pretext whatever, a duel with another Knight.

ARTICLE XIV.

A Knight owes it to his honor to defend the cause of his God, his Prince and his Country, to the last drop of his blood ; and under no pretext can he engage in a foreign service, without express permission from his Prince or Superior.

ARTICLE XV.

A Knight cannot excuse himself for non-attendance at a convocation of the Chapter, for any other reason than that of serious sickness. If he would be absent for any other reason, he must attend, and state the reason, and obtain permission to retire.

ARTICLE XVI.

The Chapter must always be lighted either with wax or olive-oil.

ARTICLE XVII.

The Chapter must never be holden without sending around the box of contribution for the poor ; and the M.^r. Wise has charge of that fund.

ARTICLE XVIII.

Every Knight must, in his turn, deliver a discourse for the instruction of his Brethren.

ARTICLE XIX.

Matters foreign to Masonry must never be mooted in the Chapter. Nothing can be discussed there except what relates to the Order.

ARTICLE XX.

Questions that concern religion, politics and the like, should never be spoken of by Knights ; and scandal, calumny and flattery should be punished as the vilest offences.

ARTICLE XXI.

Great caution is to be used in conferring this Sublime Degree. It is never to be conferred until after a rigorous examination into the conduct, honor and morals of the applicant. The ballot is to be taken on three several occasions ; and equality being the basis of the Order, each Knight has a single vote and no more.

ARTICLE XXII.

The M.: Wise, the Wardens and the Officers of the Chapter, will be selected every year, at the meeting on Maundy Thursday, and will enter immediately on the discharge of their duties. Those whom they succeed must be prepared to render their accounts at the same time, to their successors. Their accounts are rendered without being under oath ; for a true Mason is not to be suspected of bad faith ; but still the accounts should be kept with the greatest accuracy.

ARTICLE XXIII.

The deliberations must always be signed by three Brethren, and without that number no Chapter should be held.

ARTICLE XXIV.

No servant can be admitted to the Chapter. The last two Knights received perform the duties of servants ; and from that no one is exempt

ARTICLE XXV.

If a Knight falls sick, all the Brethren must visit him ; and care must be taken that he shall want for nothing ; for which purpose each Chapter should appoint an Attendant on the sick.

ARTICLE XXVI.

When a Knight dies, every other Knight must attend his funeral, all with their cordons and jewels under their coats.

ARTICLE XXVII.

With every Knight that dies, his cordon and jewel are to be buried.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

A funeral service will be performed at the expense of the Chapter, at which all the Knights must be present, clothed as in the First Apartment. This ceremony will take place only when it can be done without causing scandal.

ARTICLE XXIX.

Immediately after the interment of a Bro., the Chapter will meet, and the Orator will pronounce the funeral oration of the deceased.

ARTICLE XXX.

The Knight who succeeds to the place of the deceased will wear mourning until after two meetings of the Chapter. This mourning consists in covering the jewel with crape.

ARTICLE XXXI.

At the expiration of a year, the anniversary of the death of the deceased will be celebrated by a funeral service, and a session of the Chapter, in which appropriate tokens of respect will be paid his memory.

ARTICLE XXXII.

The names of the Knights taken away by death, will never be effaced from the Register of the Chapter ; but instead a death's head and cross-bones will be drawn at the end of each name.

ARTICLE XXXIII.

If a Knight visits a Lodge, and the Master, through ignorance, or for any other reason, does not offer him the mallet, nor recognize him in his degree, and prerogative, the Knight, not giving way to pride or anger, will conceal his ornaments under his coat, enter as a simple Mason, and take the lowest place in the Lodge ; and cannot then take any higher place than that on the left of the Jun.: Warden. This he will do, out of humility.

UNIVERSI TERRARUM ORBIS SUMMI ARCHITECTONIS GLORIA AB INGENIIS.

THE NEW SECRET INSTITUTES.
AND BASES

OF THE MOST ANCIENT AND MOST WORSHIPFUL SOCIETY OF ANCIENT AND ASSOCIATED FREE-MASONS, WHICH IS STYLED THE ROYAL AND MILITARY ORDER OF THE FREE ART OF WORKING IN STONE.

WE, FREDERIC, by the Grace of God, King of Prussia, Margrave of Brandenburg, etc., etc. :

Supreme Grand Protector, Grand Commander, Universal Grand Master, and Defender of the most ancient and honorable Society of Ancient, Free and Associated Masons or Builders, or of the Royal and Military ORDER of the Free Art of Working in Stone, or of Free-Masonry :

TO ALL ILLUSTRIOUS AND BELOVED BRETHREN TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME :

Toleration, Union, Prosperity.

As we hold to be sure and certain, the conservative and high duties which we have agreed to take upon ourselves, with that most ancient and most worshipful Institution, known in our age by the name of "The Fraternity of the Free Art of Working in Stone," or of "THE ORDER OF ANCIENT, FREE AND ASSOCIATED MASONS," have caused us, as is known to all men, to protect it with special solicitude.

This Universal Institution, whose origin is coeval with that of human society, is pure in dogma and doctrine, wise, prudent and moral in its teachings, its practices, its counsels and its measures ; and especially commends itself by its philosophical, social and philanthropic ends. The ends of this Society are these : The harmony, the happiness, the progress and the well-being of the human race taken as a whole, and of every individual man in particular. Wherefore it should, with unfailing hope and unremitting labor, be of a constant mind, that it may attain that end, which alone it regards as worthy of itself.

But, in the process of time, its organic composition and the unity of its primitive regimen have been much adulterated, by those great subversions and changes of human affairs, that have overturned the condition of the world, or disturbed it with constant changes ; and which, at different periods, in ancient times and in our own, have dispersed the ancient Masons to the different portions of the globe. This dispersion has produced disjunction into distinct branches which, under the name of Rites, still flourish ; and their aggregate composes THE ORDER.

But other divisions, springing from the first, gave occasion for the constitution of new associations, in most of which there is nothing else in common with the Free Art of Masonry, than the name and other formulas retained by their founders to mask their purposes ; secret, often exclusory, sometimes even dangerous, and almost always in opposition to the sublime principles and doctrines of the Free Art of Masonry, transmitted by tradition.

The known discords excited within the ORDER, and too long nourished, by these modern associations, exposed it to the suspicions and distrust of almost all Princes, and even to the cruel persecutions of some.

By the exertions of those Masons most eminent in virtue, these dissensions have been settled ; and all these have now for a long time desired that there should be a general consultation in regard thereto, and by proper measures to prevent their revival, and to sustain the ORDER, by restoring to it the unity of its original government, and of the original composition of its organs, and its original discipline.

While approving of these desires, which have been shared by us ever since our complete initiation into the mysteries of the Free Art of Stone Masonry, still we have not been able to conceal from ourselves either the number or nature or real magnitude of the obstacles that must be removed, in order that those desires may be accomplished. We contemplated the initiation of measures to effect the object desired, by taking counsel with the wisest and most eminent Brethren of the Fraternity, in all regions of the world, as to the expedients best fitted to attain that desirable result, without violence to the free will of any one, or in any way encroaching upon the genuine liberty of Masons, especially upon that freedom of opinion, which is, of all liberties, the first and most sacred, and exceedingly quick to take offence.

Hitherto, our royal duties, greater than common, to us, and the very many and grave events that have marked the course of our reign, have made this our intention ineffectual, and have deterred us from that undertaking. The completion and perfection of a work so great and excellent, so just and necessary, belong hereafter to the leisure, wisdom, knowledge and study of the brethren, who are to come after us. To them we commit that task, and we solicit them to labor thereat without intermission, but with moderation and discretion.

Nevertheless, recent and urgent representations, which of late have been addressed to us, from every quarter, make evident to us the pressing necessity of opposing a strong barrier to that spirit of intolerance, sectarianism, schism and anarchy, which recent innovators are endeavoring to introduce among the brethren, having purposes in view more or less narrow, inconsiderate or reprehensible, and put forward under specious pretexts, which may succeed in leading the true Art of Stone Masonry astray from its true purposes, by changing its nature, and so in bringing upon the ORDER contempt and destruction. We ourselves, informed of all that is now taking place in the realms of our neighbors, admit this urgent necessity.

Wherefore these reasons, and other inducements of not less weight, impel us to the connecting together and agglomerating into one body, the Art of Stone Masonry, all the RITES of the Scottish regimen, the doctrines of which Rites are generally recognized as being in the main the same as those ancient institutions which have a common aim, and which, while they are the principal branches of the same tree, differ from each other in their formulas only, now widely diffused, and which it is easy to reconcile. These RITES are those that are known as "The Ancient," "Heredom or Hairdom," "of the Orient of Kilwinning," "of St. Andrew," "of the Emperors of East and West," "of Princes of the Royal Secret" or "of Perfection," "of Philosophy," and the most recent RITE of all, styled, "The Primitive."

Wherefore, adopting for the basis of our conservative reformation, the title of the first of those Rites, and the hierarchic number of degrees of the last, WE DO DECLARE them all to be now and henceforth conjoined and agglomerated into one single ORDER, which, professing the dogma and pure doctrines of the ancient Art of Stone-Masonry, embraces all the systems of the Scottish Rite, united under the title of THE ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE.

Let the doctrine be imparted to the Masons in thirty-three degrees, divided into seven Temples or classes, through which each Mason will be bound to pass, in succession, before he can arrive at the most sublime and last; and in each degree he will undergo the delays and dangers which the Institutes, Decrees and Regulations, ancient and modern, of the ORDER and of Perfection require.

Let the first degree be subordinated to the second, that to the third, and so in regular order to the Sublime Degree—the thirty-third and last—which will exercise vigilance over them, will correct their errors and govern them; and an association or body whereof will be a SUPREME GRAND COUNCIL, in matter of doctrine, Defender, and Conservator of THE ORDER, which it will govern and administer, in accordance with the present constitutions, and those that may hereafter be enacted.

All the degrees of the Rites above aggregated, from the first to the eighteenth inclusive, will be placed in the Degrees of the Rite of Perfection, each according to its rank, and by its analogy and similitude, and are to compose the first eighteen degrees of THE ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE. The nineteenth degree, and the twenty-third of the Rite styled Primitive, will be the twentieth of THE ORDER ; the twentieth and twenty-third degrees of Perfection, or the sixteenth and twenty-fourth of the Primitive Rite, will be the twenty-first and twenty-eighth of THE ORDER. The PRINCES OF THE ROYAL SECRET will place themselves in the thirty-second degree, next below the SOVEREIGN GRAND INSPECTORS GENERAL, which is the thirty-third and last degree of the Order. The thirty-first degree will have the Grand Judges-Commanders ; the Grand Commanders, Grand Elect Knights Kadosh compose the thirtieth degree. In the twenty-third, twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, twenty-seventh and twenty-ninth, will be placed the Chiefs of the Tabernacle, the Princes of the Tabernacle, the Knights of the Brazen Serpent, the Princes of Courtesy, the Grand Commander of the Temple, and the Grand Ecossais of Saint Andrew.

All the Sublime Degrees of the same aggregated Scottish regimens, will, according to their analogy or identity, be distributed, in the regime of the ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE, in classes corresponding with those of their own Order.

But never, nor under any pretext, shall any one of those sublime Degrees be considered as like unto the Thirty-Third and most sublime degree of SOVEREIGN GRAND INSPECTOR GENERAL, PROTECTOR and CONSERVATOR OF THE ORDER, the last of the same ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE ; in no case shall any one be entitled to enjoy the same rights, prerogatives, privileges or faculties, with which We do invest those Inspectors.

So we do institute them in the activity of their Supreme and Conservative powers.

And to the end that this may be fixed and immutable, We do command all our well-beloved, valiant and noble Knights and Prince-Masons to maintain the same.

Given at our Royal Sec of Berlin, the kalends (first) of May, in the year of Grace, 1786, and of our Reign the 47th.

(Signed)

“FREDERIC.”

CONSTITUTIONS AND STATUTES

OF THE

GRAND AND SUPREME COUNCILS

COMPOSED OF THE GRAND INSPECTORS GENERAL, PATRONS, CHIEFS AND CONSERVATORS OF THE

ORDER

OF THE 33^D AND LAST DEGREE OF THE ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED
SCOTTISH RITE;

AND

REGULATIONS

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF ALL CONSISTORIES, COUNCILS, COLLEGES, CHAP-TERS AND OTHER MASONIC BODIES UNDER THE JURISDIC-TION OF SUCH COUNCILS.

IN THE NAME OF THE MOST HOLY AND GRAND ARCHITECT OF THE UNIVERSE.

Ordo ab Chao.

WITH the approval, in the presence, and with the sanction of His August Majesty Frederic (Charles) the Second, King of Prussia, Margrave of Brandenburg, etc., Most Potent Monarch, Grand Patron, Grand Commander, etc., of the ORDER, etc., etc., etc.

The Grand Supreme Universal Inspectors, in constituted Supreme Council, have determined and ordained the Decretals hereunder written, which are and forever shall be their CONSTITUTIONS, STATUTES and REGULATIONS for the government of the Consistories and other Masonic Bodies, placed under the jurisdiction of the said Grand Inspectors.

ARTICLE I.

ALL the Articles of the Constitutions, Statutes, and Regulations made in the year 1762, by the Nine Delegates from the Grand Councils of Princes-Masons of the Royal Secret, which are not contrary to these present Ordinances, are preserved in force and shall be observed; but such as shall conflict herewith, are abrogated, and are held to be expressly repealed.

ARTICLE II.

§ I. THE XXXIII^D Degree confers on those Masons who are legitimately invested therewith, the quality, title, privilege and authority of Sovereign Grand Inspectors General of THE ORDER.

§ II. The peculiar duties of their mission are, that of teaching and enlightening the Brethren ; that of preserving among them Charity, Union and Brotherly love ; that of maintaining regularity in the labors of each degree, and of taking care that it be maintained by others ; that of causing the Dogmas, Doctrines, Institutes, Constitutions, Statutes and Regulations of THE ORDER, and especially those of the Sublime Masonry, to be reverently regarded ; and of preserving and defending them under all circumstances ; and that, finally, of everywhere occupying themselves with works of Peace and Compassion.

§ III. A Congress of men of that degree, styled a Council of the Thirty-Third, or of Puissant Grand Inspectors General of THE ORDER, is established and organized as follows :

1. In places that may properly possess a Supreme Council of this Degree, power is by these Decretals conferred on that one of the Inspectors who has been longest admitted, to elevate to that Degree of Dignity, another Brother, becoming guarantee for him that he is, by character, knowledge and his degrees, really deserving of it ; and he shall receive the oath of the person so elected.

2. These two may jointly confer the same degree upon another person in the same manner.

§ IV. So a Supreme Council will be established.

But of the subsequent Candidates, no one is to be admitted unless he shall have in his favor a unanimous vote, given by each member viva voce, beginning with the youngest of the voters, that is, with the one last received.

The protest of one of those who are to decide, if the cause thereof is decided to be sufficient, will have the effect of rejecting the candidate. In every like case this law will govern.

ARTICLE III.

§ I. IN such a region as above, the two who shall first have been received in that degree, shall be of right the first two officials of THE SUPREME COUNCIL; to wit, the most Puissant Monarch Grand Commander, and the Most Illustrious Lieutenant Grand Commander.

§ II. If the first of these die, abdicate his office, or remove from the place, not to return, the second will succeed him, and will thereupon subrogate to himself another Grand Inspector in his office.

§ III. If the second Magistrate resigns his office, dies, or removes not to return, the first Magistrate shall confer the succession to his office upon another Brother of the same degree.

§ IV. The Most Puissant Monarch shall likewise select the Illustrious Minister of State of the Holy Empire, the Illustrious Grand Master of the Ceremonies, the Illustrious Captain of the Guards; and shall, in like manner, appoint persons to the other offices, that shall be or may become vacant.

ARTICLE IV.

EVERY Mason, who, being possessed of the endowments and fitness that are required may be received in that Sublime Degree, shall first pay into the hands of the Most Illustrious Treasurer of the Holy Empire, a donation of ten Frederics-d'or, or ten Louis-d'or of the old issue, or what, in the money of the place where, shall be equivalent thereto.

When any one of the Brethren shall be initiated into the thirtieth degree, the thirty-first or the thirty-second, the same sum of money shall be required of him for each degree, in the same amount and coin.

The Supreme Council will be charged with the administration of these moneys, and direct the use thereof for the benefit of the ORDER.

ARTICLE V.

§ I. EVERY Supreme Council will consist of nine Grand Inspectors General, of the 33d degree; of whom at least four ought to profess the prevailing religion.

§ II. When the Most Puissant Monarch, Grand Commander and the Lieutenant Grand Commander of the ORDER are present, with three members, there is a Council complete, and it is competent to transact the business of the ORDER.

§ III. In each great nation of Europe, and in each Kingdom or Empire, there shall be a single Council of the said degree.

In the States and Provinces, as well on the Continent as in the Islands, whereof North America consists, there will be two Councils, one at as great a distance from the other as may be possible.

Also, in the States and Provinces, whether on the Continent or in the Islands, whereof South America consists, there will likewise be two Councils, one at as great a distance from the other as may be possible.

There will be one only in each Empire, Sovereign State or Kingdom, in Asia, in Africa, etc., etc.

ARTICLE VI.

The Supreme Council need not always exercise its authority directly, over the degrees below the 17th, or Knight of the East and West. According as it may be convenient, and as locality may require, it may delegate that authority, even tacitly; but its right is imprescriptible; and these Presents do require of every Lodge and Council of Perfect Masons, of whatever degree it may be, that in persons of the 33rd degree, they do recognize the office of Grand Inspectors General of the ORDER, do respect their prerogatives, do pay them due honor, do obey them, and, finally, do faithfully comply with all the requirements that may emanate from them, for the benefit of The ORDER, by virtue of its laws, the present Grand Constitutions, and the functions belonging to those Inspectors, whether general or special, and even temporary and personal.

ARTICLE VII.

ALL COUNCILS, and all Masons in possession of any degree above the 16th, have the right of appealing to the Supreme Council of Sovereign Inspectors; which may permit the appellants personally to appear, and being before it to be heard.

When there is a controversy as to office among Masons, of whatsoever degree they may be, the cause shall be originally brought into the SUPREME COUNCIL, which shall adjudicate it, both in the first instance and finally.

ARTICLE VIII.

A GRAND CONSISTORY of Princes-Masons of the Royal Secret, of the 32d Degree, may elect one of its own degree to be its President; but in no case whatever shall any of the acts of such Consistory have force, without the previous sanction of the Supreme Council of the 33d degree; which, upon the death of His August Majesty, the King, Most Puissant Monarch, Universal Commander of the ORDER, will inherit the Supreme Masonic authority, to be exercised by it throughout the whole extent of the State, Kingdom, or Empire for which it was constituted.

ARTICLE IX.

IN a country under the jurisdiction of a SUPREME COUNCIL of Sovereign Inspectors General, duly constituted, and recognized by all others, no Sovereign Grand Inspector General, or Delegate Inspector General can exercise his individual powers, unless he shall have been recognized and confirmed by the same Supreme Council.

ARTICLE X.

No Deputy Inspector General, whether heretofore admitted, and accredited by Diploma, or whether hereafter admitted, in accordance with this Constitution, will have the power, of his own individual authority, to confer the degree of Knight Kadosh, or any degree above that, or for the same to grant Diploma, to any person whomsoever.

ARTICLE XI.

THE degree of Knight Kadosh, and also the 31st and 32d, are not to be given, except to Masons who may have been adjudged worthy of them, nor unless there are present at least three Sovereign Grand Inspectors General.

ARTICLE XII.

AT whatever moment of time it shall please the Most Holy and Grand Architect of the Universe to call to himself His August Majesty, the King, the Most Puissant Sovereign Grand Patron, Commander and True Defender, etc., etc., etc., of THE ORDER, each Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspectors General, whether now duly constituted and recognized, or that by virtue of these Statutes may be hereafter instituted and recognized, will of full right become legitimately endowed with all Masonic authority, whereof His August Majesty is now possessed; and each Council will exercise that authority, whenever necessary, and everywhere, throughout the whole extent of the country under its jurisdiction; and whenever, either in regard to diplomas, or to the authority of Deputy Inspectors General, or to any other matter whatever, cause may arise for protest on the ground of illegality, a statement of the matter shall be made, and transmitted to all the Supreme Councils of both Hemispheres.

ARTICLE XIII.

§ I. A SUPREME COUNCIL of the 33d Degree may send one or more of its members, Sovereign Grand Inspectors General of the ORDER, as Legates, to found, constitute and establish a Council of the same degree, in any of the Countries mentioned in these Statutes; upon the express condition that they punctually obey that which is decreed in the third paragraph of the preceding second Article, and by the other dispositions of this Constitution.

§ II. It may also confer upon such Legates the power to grant Diplomas delegating to Deputy Inspectors General, regularly invested with all the degrees of a Knight Kadosh, at least, such portion of their own plenary powers, that they may have authority to establish, regulate and superintend Lodges and Councils, from the 4th degree to the 29th inclusive, in places where there may not be Lodges of the Sublime Degree, or Councils, legitimately instituted.

§ III. The manuscript Ritual of the Sublime Degrees is to be placed in the hands of no other persons than the two first officials of each Council, or of the Brother who may be sent into some country to establish therein a Council of those Degrees.

ARTICLE XIV.

IN every Masonic ceremony whatever of the Sublime Degrees, and every solemn procession of persons constituted in those degrees, the Supreme Council is to be in the rear of the others, and the last of all the members will be the first two Magistrates ; and the Great Standard and the Sword of the ORDER will immediately precede them.

ARTICLE XV.

§ I. A SUPREME COUNCIL is regularly to be held during the three days wherewith each third new moon commences ; and will be more frequently convoked, if the business of the ORDER requires, and the transaction thereof demand it.

§ II. Besides the great and solemn feast-days of the ORDER, a Supreme Council will have three sacred days, special to itself, in each year,—to wit, the *Kalends of October, the twenty-seventh of December, and the Kalends of May.

ARTICLE XVI.

§ I. THAT each Sovereign Grand Inspector General may be recognized, and be enabled to enjoy the privileges to the 33d degree belonging, he shall be furnished with Letters-Patent and of Credence, issued in the form prescribed in the Ritual of that Degree ; which Letters will be granted him upon the condition that he pay into the Treasury of the Holy Empire, the fee which each Supreme Council shall have fixed for its own jurisdiction, when it was first instituted. And such Sovereign Grand Inspector General will also pay to the Illustrious Secretary, as a compensation for his labors in expediting the Letters and thereunto affixing the Seal, one Frederic-d'or or old Louis-d'or, or an equivalent sum in the money of the Country.

§ II. Every Grand Inspector General will moreover keep a Register of his doings, whereof each page will be distinctively numbered, and moreover the first and last pages will by special mention be designated as such. In this Register must be copied The Grand Constitutions, the Statutes, and General Regulations of the Sublime Masonic Art.

*Kalendæ: the first day of the Roman month, January, February, etc

It will be the duty of each Inspector, in regular order, to transcribe therein all his doings, under the penalty of nullity and even of *interdiction.

§ III. They are mutually to exhibit to each other their Registers and Diplomas, and in their Registers mutually to note the places where one meets the other and they recognize each other.

ARTICLE XVII.

It requires a majority of votes to invest with lawful authority the acts of Sovereign Grand Inspectors General done in a country where there exists a SUPREME COUNCIL of the 33d Degree legitimately instituted and recognized. Wherefore, within that country, or in a territory which is a dependency of the same Council, NO ONE of such Inspectors can individually exercise his powers, except in a case wherefor he shall have obtained authorization from such Supreme Council; or, if the Inspector shall belong to another jurisdiction, when he shall have obtained permission by that rescript, which from its formula is known as an EXEQUATUR.

ARTICLE XVIII.

ALL moneys received for defrayal of expenditures,—to wit, fees for admissions—which are required to be paid as fees for initiation, for the degrees from the 16th to the 33d inclusive, are to be paid into the Treasury of the Holy Empire; which is to be seen to by the Presiding Officers and Treasurers of Councils and Sublime Lodges of those Degrees, by the Sovereign Grand Inspectors General and their Deputies, and by the Illustrious Secretary and Treasurer of the Holy Empire.

The administration and use of such moneys are to be directed and will be controlled by the Supreme Council, which will see to it that accounts shall annually be faithfully and fully rendered to itself; and shall take care that these be communicated to all the bodies that may be of their dependence.

*Prohibition to exercise further the powers of his office

APPENDIX
TO
THE FUNDAMENTAL STATUTES AND GRAND CONSTITUTIONS OF THE SUPREME COUNCIL OF THE THIRTY-THIRD DEGREE.

ARTICLE I.

THE Banner of THE ORDER is argent, bordered with a fringe of gold, charged in the centre with an Eagle with two heads, displayed, sable, armed, or, holding with one claw the hilt, of the last, and with the other the blade, steel, of an ancient sword, horizontal, from right to left; from which sword depends the Latin inscription, "DEUS MEUMQUE JUS," in letters of gold. The Eagle surmounted for crown with a triangle of the third, and a band, purple, fringed and with stars of the third.

ARTICLE II.

THE distinctive insignia of Sovereign Grand Inspectors General are :

1°. A Teutonic Cross of crimson, affixed to the left side of the breast.

2°. A broad white watered Ribbon, bordered with gold, bearing on the front a triangle of gold glittering with rays of gold, which has in the centre the numeral XXXIII., with, on each side, a sword of silver, from above, on each side of the triangle pointing to its centre. This ribbon, worn from the right shoulder to the left hip, ends in a point, and is fringed with gold, having at the junction a circular band of scarlet and green, containing the general Jewel of THE ORDER.

3°. This Jewel is an Eagle like that upon the banner, crowned with the golden Crown of Prussia.

4°. The Grand Decorations of THE ORDER rest upon a Teutonic Cross. They are a nine-pointed Star, namely, one formed by three triangles of gold, one upon the other, and interlaced. From the lower part of the left side to the upper part of the right, a Sword extends, and in the opposite direction is a hand of (as it is called), Justice. In the centre is the Shield of THE ORDER, azure charged with an Eagle like that on the Banner, having on the dexter side a Balance, or, and on the sinister side a compass of the second, united with a Square of the second. Around the whole Shield runs a band of the first, with the Latin Inscription, of the second, "ORDO AB CHAO;" which band is enclosed by two circles, formed by two Serpents of the second, each biting his own tail. Of the smaller triangles that are formed by the intersection of the greater ones, those nine that are nearest the band are of crimson color, and each of them has one of the letters that compose the word S.A.P.I.E.N.T.I.A.

5°. The three first Officers of the Supreme Council wear, in addition, a white girdle, that is, a sash, fringed with gold, and the ends hanging down on the right side.

ARTICLE III.

THE Great Seal of THE ORDER is a silver shield, charged with a double-headed Eagle, like that on the Banner of THE ORDER, crowned with the golden Crown of Prussia, above which is a Triangle of gold, emitting rays, having in its centre the numeral XXXIII. The Eagle may be surmounted by either the crown or the triangle alone.

At the base of the Shield, under the wings and talons of the Eagle, are thirty-three stars of gold, arranged in a semicircle. The whole is surmounted by the inscription, "SUPREME COUNCIL OF THE XXXIII^d DEGREE FOR"

DONE in SUPREME COUNCIL of the XXXIII^d Degree, the day, month and year above mentioned.
